

20 SEGONS DE TERROR

#20SegonsTerrorMolins

SUBMISSION AND SELECTION

The contest is open to all people who want to participate (adults and children) and to all genres (fiction, animation, documentary...). It is not needed to have great means, just creativity.

The videos must fit within the theme of horror in any of its subgenres, extensions or interpretations and have a maximum length of 20 seconds (if you need final credits, 5 extra seconds are allowed for them)

The videos must be published by the participant on Twitter, Facebook or Instagram between the dates 09/01/2021 and 10/31/2021.

The videos will be inserted in one of the aforementioned platforms. Publications with external links to them will not be accepted.

The title of the video must be indicated. Also age when the author is 16 years old or younger. It will be essential to add the hashtag #20SegonsTerrorMolins

You can submit more than one video, always from an account that follows the Festival on the social network where it is published. The Festival has to be able to contact you through this network.

From among all the videos presented that comply with these regulations, the Jury will decide the finalists and winners in the different categories.

The Festival reserves the right to project or broadcast the participating videos. By participating in the Contest, the authors give implicit consent to this.

The contestants will be solely responsible for ensuring that their video does not violate the rights of third parties. The Festival will be exempt from any responsibility.

The scope of participation is international.

JURY, AWARDS AND CATEGORIES

From among all the participating videos, regardless of the author's age, a Jury chosen by the Festival will decide three finalists, one of them will be the winner of the Best Video of the 20 Seconds of Horror Contest. Finalists will be announced on November 2th on social networks, while the public announcement of the winner will be made during the Festival's Closing Gala on November 12.

Videos that comply with the age requirements, whether or not they are finalists in the Contest, will also be eligible for these two awards: Best Video in the category up to 11 years old and Best Video in the category 12-16 years old. The aforementioned Jury will choose them. They will be announced on November 4 on social networks.

The videos in competition will be eligible for the following prizes:

Best Video of the 20 Seconds of Horror Contest:

Full festival pass
2 hotel nights in a double room (nights of November 11 and 12)
Festival premium merchandising pack (collection at Festival or shipping only to Spain)

Finalist video of the 20 Seconds of Horror Contest:

Full festival pass

Mejor Vídeo en la categoría de hasta 11 años:

Premium pack kids merchandising of the Festival (pick up at the Festival or shipping only to Spain)

Best Video in the category up to 11 years old:

Premium pack kids merchandising del Festival (recogida en Festival o envío solo a paña)

Public presentation:

- The two Finalist videos, as well as the three winners of the Best Video award, will be screened on Friday, November 12, before the closing film of the Festival.
- All the videos of authors up to 16 years old will be projected on the big screen during the TerrorKids session of this edition. The team that created each of the two winning videos in the children's category will be invited on stage to introduce them.

The Jury reserves the right to grant special mentions to the participating videos that they deem as appropriate. The awards cannot be declared ex aequos.

The awards may be declared void in the event that the Jury deems it appropriate.

FINAL CLARIFICATIONS:

Participation in the Contest implies full acceptance of the rules.
The organization of the Festival will resolve, at its discretion, any eventuality.
The organization of the Festival reserves the right to modify the regulations without prior notice.
